Be it disastrous dates or horrible bosses, frustrating technology or mindless douchebaggery, some people and events seem to come out of nowhere with the sole purpose of destroying your day. This book pokes fun at the steaming turds you occasionally find in your personal Zen Garden.

About the Author:

Jackson Holiday is an easily agitated individual. He's lactose intolerant, has an inexplicable hatred for free range raisins, and was nearly detained at the airport for feeling-up a TSA agent ... allegedly. When not writing or complaining he can be found walking the streets of New Rochelle, NY singing, only slightly off key.

"No one is spared in Jackson Holiday's humorous debut "Who Sh*t in my Zen Garden?" - a Carlin-esque rant about the absurdities of contemporary life in the US." - The Publisher
