One Hundred Years of Solitude (Chinese Edition) Gabriel García Márquez

This book is a representative work in magic realism literature, involving tales of legends, folk stories, religion quotation and other mysterious factors, tactfully mixing reality and illusion, demonstrating a magnificent imaginary world, as one of the most important classic literal masterworks in the 20th century. In 1982 García Márquez won the Nobel Prize in Literature, founding the status of world-class master of literature, largely by virtue of great influence of this book.
