I Don't Want to Go Back to School Marisabina Russo

Summer was over. It was time for Ben to go back to school. But all he could think of were the terrible things that might happen. For instance, what if no one remembered him? What if he forgot to get off the bus on the way home? What if the teacher asked him a really hard question? Nothing that anyone said made Ben feel better. And then it was too late. School had begun....

Anyone who has returned to school after summer vacation will know what Ben is going through-and will laugh with delight (and relief) at the happy outcome.
