Wreck of the Titan Or, Futility and Morgan Robertson the Man Morgan Robertson

Fictional novella originally written in 1898 about an unsinkable passenger ship called the Titan. Close parallels to the Titanic -- both were unsinkable, both struck icebergs, both were on their maiden voyages, only one-third of the passengers on each ship survived, the elite of the time were on board both ships, and both ships were encouraged to break speed records.

Includes a biography of Morgan Robertson, the author.
