Guide to Getting It On! 4th Edition Paul Joannides

Author and sex educator Violet Blue has written this description of the new fourth edition which says it all:

It's finally here! What I, and pretty much every sex educator I know, have long thought is the best all-around sex guide in the world has finally released a fully—and I mean fully—updated version. The Guide to Getting It On! is really now the most comprehensive sex guide in the world, and as a sex guide writer, I'm saying a lot.

Joannides and his team of researchers present a (huge) book that covers it all, in a very hilarious tone that delivers oodles of info yet remains expressly respectful to the reader at all times. This is an all-inclusive (yet heterosexually focused), sex-positive, non-judgmental tome.

First off, it has the very best sexual anatomy illustrations I've ever seen—and I don't mean drawings that look like cadaver cutlets, I mean clear, bold illustrations that show anatomy for pleasure (as opposed to reproduction) like no other book in print. And trust me, learning pleasure anatomy is the key to giving and getting it good. Anatomy, sex toys, porn, positions, oral sex, anal sex, sex and disability, romance, hair removal, bugs, STD's, Barbie, birth control, prostate, g-spot, straight, gay, bi, masculine, feminine, parents talking to teens about sex... phew, and I'm only skimming the surface. Good luck finding a topic *not* in this fabulous book. Make this one the centerpiece of your library, and augment with topic-specific books (many are recommended within the text).
