Among today's top TV shows is Bill Cosby's "Kids Say the Darndest Things," reminiscent of Art Linkletter's book of the same title. Even beyond the funny, insightful, sometimes embarrassingly honest comments kids make, are the things they say about specific subjects like God, family, parents, the Bible, Jesus, heaven, and Prayer.

Culled from youthful entries sent by parents and grandparents, schoolteachers and Sunday school teachers, and by children themselves, comes this rich harvest of wisdom, insight, and humor from today's children. Gathered from nearly every state in the U.S. and many countries abroad, this original material will sometimes amaze you, perhaps make you chuckle, but always remind you of the joyous simplicity of childhood.
