God Around Us: A Search for Objective Reality: Topics for Discussion & Reflection timm todd

This work looks at facets of reality from physical reality to moral and spiritual realities, presenting various ideas for consideration and discussion in discovering objective reality. It seeks to challenge the reader to look at life from a different, more eternal, perspective in order to propagate discussion and personal growth. In seeing God as an involved character in the framework of daily life, it encourages each of us to develop and foster a personal relationship with the God of creation.
