Modern Man in Search of a Soul C.G. Jung

Modern Man in Search of a Soul is widely considered to be one of the most important books of the 20th century, as well as a milestone in the field of psychology. In this book, Jung examines some of the most profound issues of analytical psychology, such as dream analysis, the collective unconscious, archetypes, and the relationship between psychology and spirituality. Jung also extrapolates the differences between his theories and those of Sigmund Freud, providing valuable insights for anyone interested in psychoanalysis and the science of mind.
