Whispers of Razari Cindy C Bennett, Jeffery Moore

When sixteen year old Olivia Adams wakes from a horrible car accident that killed her parents, she knows she's something different. Olivia died, and now the soul inhabiting her body needs to find out who, and what, she is. A glimpse of a world called Razari burning is the only clue to her previous existence—a tragic memory, sparking events that endanger the people helping her. Jacobi McKenzie has lived in Crescent, Montana for more years than he can remember, even though he's only seventeen. He's been waiting, but for what he isn't sure. Jacobi recognizes Olivia for what she is before she's even aware of it herself and the effect she has on him threatens to expose his true identity—a thing he's worked hard to conceal. They come together in an explosion of emotion that neither of them is supposed to feel. As Jacobi fights for Olivia's life, protecting her from those who would use her for their own selfish purposes, together they unravel the mystery surrounding the destruction of their race.
